

Queen Margaret's, York

Queen Margaret's is an independent boarding and day school for girls aged 11-18, located in glorious parkland, six miles south of York. Established in 1901, the school is proud of its traditions and Anglican foundation, whilst being forward thinking. Strong in the Arts, Humanities and Sciences, QM girls achieve outstanding academic results while receiving an all-round education. Art, dance, drama, music and sport are all strengths and girls are encouraged to be involved in these and many other enrichment activities.

Ethos of the School

Queen Margaret's exists to provide a holistic education, underpinned by warm-hearted pastoral care, inspiring every girl to develop and flourish in a safe and happy boarding environment, empowering her to achieve her life, academic and career aspirations. A Queen Margaret's education is an exciting, challenging and balanced experience. Our girls are part of a community of people who care for each other and grow as individuals. They develop a wealth of skills for use in their own lives and ideals to make a difference in the world. At the heart of a QM education is a love of learning, which is supported by a healthy body and healthy mind. When a girl has completed her education at QM she will be a free thinking, courageous individual, prepared to take her learning to the next level and her place in the modern world.

Aims of the School

Queen Margaret's is a school for girls who aspire to be leaders in every walk of life. QM girls take advantage of the rich and complementary programme of studies and activities available to them. In doing so, we hope that they will:

- achieve excellence inside and outside the classroom
- develop an enthusiasm for independent thought, learning and research
- grow with emotional maturity, social awareness and respect for individuality and difference
- forge special friendships that will stay with them for the rest of their lives
- be interesting, well-informed, happy and confident members of the community

History of Art

History of Art sits within the History Department. Pupils are taught at A Level only.

We say to girls who express an interest in History of Art: "This subject teaches us to look in radically different ways at the material culture which surrounds us, from the Fine Arts through to expressions of popular culture. From this we can develop a vivid understanding of history. The subject provides skills which are valuable far beyond the classroom. You do not need to have studied this subject before, but you should certainly have a passion for the visual arts. Art History is a Humanities subject and as such is most similar to English or History. The subject requires a significant amount of reading and teaches the skills of critical analysis and essay writing."

We say to you, if you are an inspirational teacher, with a real passion for your subject, who wishes to join a team that is ambitious for our pupils please let us have an application. You will be very welcome to join us

We currently follow the Edexcel History of Art Course. In 2020 all pupils were awarded a grade within bands A* to B.

We seek an inspirational teacher to deliver this course with immediate effect. The ability to teach Philosophy and Ethics would be a significant advantage.
